

Trying to write a novel while working full time can feel like hitting your head against a brick wall... but not anymore!

WRITING A NOVEL DESPITE YOUR DAY JOB™

A Working Author Shares 10 Secrets of Her Success

If you have a great idea for a novel, but can't seem to find the time to write it, this informative audio training session is the answer. Featuring Pamela Samuels-Young, a published novelist, this invaluable CD shares the ten tips that helped Pamela complete two novels while working full-time as a corporate attorney. You'll learn how to:

- Create a realistic writing schedule
- Outline your novel so you can finish it in record time
- Advance your novel even when you're not writing
- Master the elements of story structure
- And much, much more!

Pamela Samuels-Young is the author of Every Reasonable Doubt (2006) and In Firm Pursuit (2007). A corporate attorney and former television news writer, Pamela received her law degree from UC Berkeley's Boalt Hall School of Law. She earned her bachelor's degree in journalism from the University of Southern California and has a master's degree in broadcasting from Northwestern University's Medill School of Journalism.
